

Allsorts Youth Project

Allsorts is a project based in Brighton & Hove which supports and empowers children & young people under 26 who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans or unsu (LGBTU) of their sexual orientation and/or gender identity.

It aims to raise awareness, promote inclusion and facilitate safer and more supportive environments for LGBTU children and young people and challenge prejudice and discrimination in all areas of young people's lives.

It also:

Supports children and young people who are LGBTU through group work and emotional support with knowledgeable, friendly and supportive LGBT youth workers.

- > Provides LGBTU awareness training for professionals & agencies working with children and young people.
- > Provides activities for LGBTU children and young people to develop friendships and have fun.
- > Delivers homophobia, biphobia and transphobia awareness and anti-bullying workshops for children and young people in schools, colleges and youth organisations
- > Provides resources and educational materials relating to LGBTU children, young people and their well-being

Contact details

Telephone	01273 721211
E-mail	info@allsortsyouth.org.uk
Website	www.allsortsyouth.org.uk
Facebook	Click here to view our Facebook page
Twitter	Click here to view our Twitter page

Other details

Age Range From 13 years To 25 years

This information has been collected from third party providers therefore Brighton and Hove Family Information Service and Brighton and Hove City Council can't accept responsibility for the accuracy of this information and recommends that parents, carers, young people, residents and professionals check with provide regarding DBS (Disclosure & Barring Service) and OFSTED registrations and CQC registrations. For further guidance please read Choosing Services Safely