

Alessia Gangitano

Childminder

I am a professional, caring, enthusiastic childminder providing flexible, high quality home-based childcare. I provide a loving, nurturing environment for your child offering uninterrupted time and freedom to play and explore through adult led and child initiated purposeful play experiences. My activities include walks to the parks, playgrounds, visits to the library, toy library, local Children's Centres, cooking and creative activities. I am passionate about swimming and hold a current scuba diving licence (PADI), do not worry, I won't take your child under water! but swimming lessons are available if required. My aim is to provide a warm, caring friendly setting for children to grow and develop safely.

Saturday and Sunday childcare offered, evenings only.
